The team is based in Rome. The team has been competing for many years in different championships and the most important events are those organized by the International Motocross Federation (FIM). The team competed in the MXGP and MX2 categories during the 90's in the majority of the championship races as well as the MX and FMX World Cup. Until today, the team was represented by the rider Luca Scinto and their first official victory came in MX2 in 1997 at the Suisse GP. The name of the racing team is inspired by the Woodyard factory where Paolo Simoncelli found many of his successes in the championship. Paolo Simoncelli has been chairman of the Concession Agreements and Technology for the FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme) since 2008. Woodyard Racing is a major sponsor of the FIM Championship and the team is also a major sponsor for the FIM Junior World Championship. More information about Woodyard Racing can be found on the Official Website of the FIM The Italian team is delighted 1cb139a0ed
