The U.S. Air Force has a tough job: send people to space in order to test (and kill) each other. The Pentagon has just released its official “Space Force budget” for 2019. It comes in at an astounding $30 billion, and is mostly for hardware — including drones, satellites, missiles, and the like. But tucked into that budget is a small pot of money for promoting the service. The Air Force c6a93da74d
